RESULTS OF THE 2022 INTERNATIONAL CONTEST « LE MONDIAL DES VINS BLANCS STRASBOURG »

THE ONLY COMPETITION IN THE WORLD ENTIRELY DEDICATED TO ALL THE DIVERSITY OF WHITE WINES UNDER THE PATRONAGE OF THE INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF VINE AND WINE (OIV) AND MEMBER OF VINO F&D

Coming from the New World, the European continent, Asia and Oceania, the colors of white and orange wines swirled even more at the Palais de la Musique et des Congrès on June 11th and 12th during this 24th edition.

The wine estates of the world entered the dance with in particular a first participation from Mexico, a winning date for Japan, celebrations of indigenous grape varieties and beautiful confirmations of medals.

A desire to participate also for the 63 expert judges from the 5 continents who for some had been prevented for 2 years from traveling from South Africa, Australia, Canada or the States. The tempo: 3 series per morning for each judge and 70 wines tasted by expert over the 2 days.

The 5 continents' table : South Africa, Australia, Canada, France, Japan, Romania, Switzerland, United-Kingdom, USA gathered at the same table!

>> EMOTION, PROFESSIONALISM AND LABORATORY OF WORLD TRENDS.

Meeting between wine experts from all professions (20 nationalities of journalists & writers, wine merchants, oenologists, Master of Wine, Best Sommelier of the World, traders, producers, sommeliers, wine educators, WSET graduates...) around a common passion after two years in slow motion, evaluating with the greatest respect and highlighting the work of the planet's winegrowers, anticipating and responding to the demand of producers and consumers who need quality benchmarks, this is the whole spirit of the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg.

As a veritable laboratory of wine trends, the Mondial has twirled from table to table, the best white wines in the world, this year also reserving very beautiful dances for white wines with maceration (orange wines), allowing them to release all their aromas and to be celebrated at their fair value.

AN WHITE WINE WITH MACERATION STOOD OUT:

Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg

The event took place in compliance with the strict rules of the OIV (International Organization of Vine and Wine - www.oiv.int) in the presence of Prof. Dr. Monika Christmann, Honorary President. Roberto Gaudio, Delegate of VINO FED (World Federation of Major International Wine and Spirits Competitions - www.vinofed.com) of which the Mondial is a member, was also involved and guaranteed compliance with the rules.

This year, the Management of Strasbourg Events seized the opportunity to create links between producers, judges, ambassadors and consuls of the same participating country: the location of the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg facilitates this synergy (Strasbourg, headquarters of the Council of Europe). Thus, the following delegation honored us with its presence:

Manou Massenez deep in conversation with Cécilia Alarcón Salinas, Chilean judge.

The Honorary Consul of Ecuador & Foreign Trade Advisor of France, Manou Massenez
The Ambassador and Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary Permanent Representative of Hungary, Harry Alex Ruz
The Consul General of Japan, Takeshi Akamatsu
The Consul General of Kazakhstan, Anuarbek Akhmetov and
The Consul of the Republic of Khazakstan, Janibek Bektemissov
The Honorary Consul of the Netherlands, Christophe Kieffer
The Consul General of the United States of America, Darragh T. Paradiso

The representatives of the diplomatic corps, who are very knowledgeable in wine matters, were able to discuss with their fellow expert judges on the inexhaustible subject of wine and on the springboard that this international competition represents for the producers of their respective countries.

Christophe Caillaud-Joos, Managing Director of Strasbourg Events and Souhira Ehresmann, Director of Organized Events, intend to work even more by supporting these connections from the next edition to be held in April 2023.

Partnerships are consolidated with each edition. 6 students from AIVA (International Academy of Wines in Alsace) participated under the same conditions as the expert judges in the evaluation of the wines in competition. An extremely enriching "in vino" experience.

The students in Sommellerie from the Lycée d'hôtellerie et de Tourisme Alexandre Dumas, supervised by Antoine Woerlé, Meilleur Ouvrier de France des Arts de la Table et du Service, performed flawlessly at the 9 tables of judges over the 2 days of competition.

The collaboration with ANEV, the Association Nationale des Elus du Vin, is renewed and aims to strengthen communication with French wine regions.

The CIVA (Conseil Interprofessionnel des Vins d'Alsace), partner of the Mondial, organized during the closing lunch a presentation of Grands Crus D'Alsace for the greatest pleasure of the students, journalists, judges and permanent representatives of the consular chambers on the Council of Europe.

Everything is in place to start a new score in April 2023 on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the contest and celebrate the best white wines on the planet. In Strasbourg, of course!
