Le Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg 2023 Edition

The only competition in the world entirely dedicated to the diversity of the white wines organized under the Patronage of the OIV and member of VINO FED

AN INTERNATIONAL DIMENSION

For 25 years, the competition has continued to grow with the participation of winegrowers from the 5 continents and judges who are as expert as they are international.

On the occasion of the quarter of a century of the competition, the organizers have innovated and propose to celebrate 3 favorites among:

- ♥ The first participations
- ♥ Indigenous grape varieties
- ♥ White wines with maceration (orange wines)

The 25th anniversary godfather

Monsieur Serge DUBS

1989 Best Sommelier in the world

In 1972, Serge Dubs started at the age of 19 at the "Auberge de L'III" in Illhaeusern in Alsace, a 2-star restaurant in the Michelin guide run by Marc and Paul Haeberlin. In 1976, he became master sommelier at the Auberge de l'III where he still officiates.

In 2004, he became President of the UDSF (Union de la sommellerie française) and was Vice-President for the European Continent of the ASI (Association de la Sommellerie Internationale).

Winner of the Bretzel d'Or in 2020 in the oenology category, he is the best of the Ambassadors of Alsace wines. He has written two reference works and created a specific glass for the wines of Alsace which he promotes throughout the world. He guides and inspires the young generation of sommeliers.

Serge DUBS, World's Best Sommelier 1989@FéComSi

In 2021, for his entire remarkable career, he receives the 1st prize Gérard Basset, a prize created by the Association de la Sommellerie Internationale (ASI).

In 2022, he is Grand Master of the Confrérie Saint-Etienne d'Alsace.

The organizers are on the one hand very grateful to Serge Dubs for his loyalty to the big meeting of the Mondial and on the other hand honored that he is the first official godfather of the competition.

In addition to the Presidency of the jury table, Serge Dubs has never failed in the ceremonial wine appetizer. It is always a solemn and very important moment. Serge Dubs comments on the wine, this same wine which allows the calibration process on the one hand and the launch of the competition on the other.

- 1974 & 1976 - Best sommelier in Alsace.
- 1978 & 1980 - Vice-champion of France for sommeliers.
- 1983 - Best sommelier in France.
- 1988 - Best sommelier in Europe and winner of the Master of Port competition.
- 1989 - World's Best Sommelier and UDSF Master Sommelier.

The competition

How it works

The very strict tasting rules require the jurors to be unfailingly impartial in their judgement.

The tasters will be required not only to taste but also to describe and comment on the wines according to the following criteria :

- The visual aspect
- The olfactive aspect
- The impression on the palate
- The overall impression
- The particular uniqueness and character of the product

The whole criteria are then reported and registered through a numerical process thanks to an electronic device.

The Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg welcomes professional tasters (qualified tasters, oenologists, sommelières; wine growers, journalists etc...), selected throughout the world according to their experience and competences. Most of them are also experts for other international OIV supported competitions.

Each table will be made up from 5 to 7 places.

So, a majority of foreign tasters is secured for each table.

There will be 10 tables. Each jury will taste the grape varieties every day starting at 8.30 am.

The awards will be given to wines obtaining

- for a Grand Or a Minimum of 93 points
 - for a gold: a Minimum of 89 points
 - for a silver: a Minimum of 85 points
- Only 30% of the wines can be awarded a medal.

Each table will be made up from 5 to 7 places.

So, a majority of foreign tasters is secured for each table.

There will be 10 tables. Each jury will taste the grape varieties every day starting at 8.30 am.

The 70 international judges will debate, rate their jury's table regarding about 600 tasted samples and grant them their note.

The rewarded winegrowers will be authorized to affix the seals of the prizes obtained to their bottles.

94,57 POINTS

Welcome to the orange wine in the contest !

An orange wine is a white wine with maceration

Here is the definition by OIV-ECO 647-2020 :

«White wine resulting from the alcoholic fermentation of a must in prolonged contact with grape marc, including the skins, the pulp, the pips and possibly the stems.»

REQUIREMENTS :

- a) The production is made exclusively from varieties of white grapes ;
- b) the maceration is carried out in contact with grape marc ;
- c) the minimum duration of the maceration phase is one month ;
- d) «white wine with maceration» can be characterised by an orange-amber colour and tannic taste».

Indeed, many estates have embarked on this adventure and winelovers are more and more seduced by this orange variation. It is therefore right that winegrowers can have their products seriously evaluated and that consumers can also find their way around.

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary, a favourite ❤️ will be awarded among the white wines with maceration in competition

The favourites ♥ of the 25th edition

The essence of our competition has always been to capture and highlight the trends and dynamics of winegrowers around the world.

This year to celebrate our quarter of a century, in addition to the distinctions The Grand Prix du Jury, the trophies (VINO FED & best dry wine by category) and medals (Grand Gold, Gold, Silver),

3 favourites will be awarded

The Indigenous grape favourite ♥

Some will talk about a return to the roots after these two years out of the norm, in all cases indigenous wines exist all over the world and are a symbol of resistance and also of rarity.

An indigenous grape variety combined with the winemaker's work on a specific terroir and climate is an interesting equation.

It is precisely the story of these wines that we want to listen to, share and celebrate.

The orange wine favourite ♥

The so-called orange wines were the curiosity of the 2022 edition but more than a trend, they are also a true philosophy for some winemakers and are derived from ancestral practices.

They are also more than suitable in wine pairings. They deserve to be known.

The first entry favourite ♥

It is aimed at a first entry of a country or a region of a country, of a AOC... A way to stimulate the taste for challenge among the winemakers community all over the world.

The Mondial is intended to be a reflection of the alchemy that operates around the world in these wonderful jobs related to the winegrowing and aging of wine.

THE INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION OF VINE AND WINE

A prestigious patronage

Prf. Dr. MONIKA CHRISTMANN,
THE HONORARY PRESIDENT
OF OIV WILL BE THE CHAIR
OF THE COMPETITION

The OIV Patronage (Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin) is prestigious, The Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg obtained it 12 years ago for the first time. Thanks to the Strasbourg events compliance with the strict rules of the international competitions, the OIV renewed one more time its confidence and its prestigious patronage.

Thanks to those official checks and supervision, Strasbourg events can guarantee a worldwide recognition to the competitors.

The rewarded winegrowers will be authorized to affix the seals of the prizes obtained to their bottles.

OIV.INT

VINO FED, THE WORLD FEDERATION OF MAJOR INTERNATIONAL WINES AND SPIRITS CONTESTS

the guarantee of excellence !

For the 4th time the VINO FED prize (0-4g sugar) will be granted to the best still DRY Wine in the competition all categories combined.

FERNANDO GURUCHARRI,
THE VINO FED PRESIDENT
WILL JOIN THE JUGES PANEL
THIS YEAR

The member competitions are extremely supportive and are part of the new communication dynamic driven by VINO FED. Proof of this is the listing of all the winners of Vinofed member competitions put on the international platform :

WINE-SEARCHER.COM

With its observer status at the Organisation Internationale de la Vigne et du Vin (OIV), VINO FED collaborates in the development and revision of OIV Standards for International wines and spirits as well as guidelines for competitions. Vinofed obtains OIV patronage for its members. VINO FED audits each competition to exacting standards.

The aim is to ensure absolute credibility for VINO FED members and to ensure the authenticity and high quality of wines and spirits that obtain awards, and to give them the right to carry the VINO FED label.

VINO FED gives the producers the assurance that its products have been assessed according to well-defined guidelines by competent international tasters. It strengthens consumer confidence by guaranteeing the quality of award-winning products.

LA REFERENCE DES CONCOURS INTERNATIONAUX DE VIN

The Union de la Sommellerie Française

The Union de la Sommellerie Française*, is well represented at Le Mondial des Vins Blancs.

This association, which aims to promote, support, develop, improve and protect the Sommelier profession and activity, brings an additional guarantee of the tasters' competences and grants a valued credibility to the winners.

Strasbourg Evènements welcomes many representatives of the UDSF, which confirms the Unions interest towards le Mondial des Vins Blancs.

Serge DUBS, 1989 World's Best Sommelier, Vice President of the A.S.I. (association de la sommellerie internationale) will take part in the tastings as member of the jury and is also the godfather of the 25th edition.

Other members from the steering committee of the Association of Alsatian Sommeliers will also judge the samples, which shows the increasing interest of the official wine authorities in the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg.

It should be noted that, each year, the wine stewards supervised by Antoine WOERLÉ, Meilleur ouvrier de France des Arts de la Table, and their teacher Sandrine ZEHNDER, are students "course sommellerie" of the Lycee Hôtelier Alexandre Dumas of Illkirch, near Strasbourg.

*The Union de la Sommellerie Française currently has more than 1,300 members and incorporates 21 regional associations, thanks to which it organises tastings and seminars, while also taking part in training workshops for young wine waiters. At its major conferences, which bring together a considerable part of its membership, the UDSF awards «golden grapes» to the best master.

SOMMELIER-FRANCE.ORG

L'Union des Œnologues de France

The Enologists syndicate

Founded in 1959 (4 years after the DNO degree) the Union des Oenologues de France gathers all wine professionals graduated with the DNO. 1500 Enologists have joined the Union to contribute to the recognition and the protection of their job. Their opinions regarding wine regulations and sector are then reported to the national and international wine and vine organizations.

Thanks to a 7 agencies organization, the Union is directly connected with its members and the daily operations (the agencies are located in Alsace, Bordeaux Sud-Ouest, Bourgogne Centre Est, Champagne, Languedoc-Roussillon, Provence-Corse-Vallée du Rhône and Val de Loire). Each Region manages its own activities (wine contests, tastings), organizes meetings (technical conferences) is connected with the regional offices and is in charge of the organization of the Congrès national des Œnologues each year in May.

• The AIVA, The International Academy of Wines in Alsace

The International Academy of Wines in Alsace teaches, develops and deepens all the wine professions: Viticulture, Winemaking, Sommellerie, Management, Marketing, Communication, Management and Commercialization.

The AIVA WSET students, as observers, are invited to taste the competing white wines. They will mark the samples according to the OIV rules exactly in the same conditions as the expert jurors, even if their points will not be taken into account for the final compilation. A great challenge for the students and the opportunity of meeting worldwide experts!

The CIVA

#drinkalsace

The Interprofessional Council of Alsace Wines, commonly abbreviated as CIVA, is the interprofessional organization of the wine industry for AOC wines (Appellations d'Origine Contrôlée) of Alsace. It brings together more than 950 operators (private cellars, cooperatives, traders). It provides economic and technical missions to Alsatian viticulture, and promotes, in France and abroad, wines receiving a recognized AOC in the Alsace region.

VINSALSACE.COM/FR

The SYNVIRA

The Syndicat des Vignerons Indépendants d'Alsace (Synvira), a professional wine-growing organization created in 1971, is a major player in the Alsatian wine-growing sector. It accompanies its members in the defense of their profession and in the development of their activity from A to Z by providing numerous professional services: advice, training, legal defense, information, commercial support.

ALSACE-DU-VIN.COM

The ANEV is the national association of elected representatives of the vine and wine.

The National Association of Elected Vine and Wine was born on June 15, 1999 at the initiative of some twenty parliamentarians from wine constituencies across France. Its creation was a response to the observation made by Michel Grégoire, former agricultural technician and Member of Parliament for Drôme, who deplored the absence of a network of elected representatives to represent the vine and wine territories, who nevertheless share so many concerns and commonalities.

Inspired by other associations of elected officials serving the territories, these elected officials then decided to found ANEV to constitute the network of elected representatives of wine, transcending all political and geographic divisions.

ANEV now has several hundred members, including a large majority of wine-growing municipalities and intermunicipal bodies, as well as around one hundred parliamentarians from regions and departments.

Olivier Sohler, member of the jury for the 2023 edition represents the ANEV

ANEV's missions aim to meet 4 main objectives:

- Express and represent the general interests of wine-growing areas;
- Promote consultation, exchange and dialogue between elected representatives of wine;
- Inform the member communities of the policies implemented by the public authorities;
- And above all, promote the dynamism of viticulture and its terroirs.

In order to best meet these objectives, ANEV has embarked on a development strategy aimed at establishing partnerships with important events for viticulture, in order to improve its presence across the territories.

2021, ANEV and the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg have decided to set up a «win-win» partnership. This should allow ANEV to improve its anchoring in the regions producing white wines, in particular in Alsace, while offering the Mondial des Vins blancs Strasbourg new visibility among elected members of ANEV, and all those interested in its activity.

Moreover, this renewed partnership also allows ANEV to pursue its mission of promoting the dynamism and vitality of viticulture, which can only be better symbolized by the quality of the productions rewarded at the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg.

« We are very happy to start this collaboration with the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg competition. Together, we share the important mission of contributing to the development of the wine and tourism sectors and supporting the various professions in the sector. »

Oleksandra Hryorhieva, Editor-in-Chief of Drinks and WTA Project Manager

The opportunity to remember that Ukraine is also a great wine country. As a reminder, among the winners of the 2021 edition of the Mondial des Vins Blancs Strasbourg is the Prince Trubetskoi estate, which won a silver medal for Riesling Rhine Limited ordinary white dry 2016.
